

AngloLinguist Online Language Programme: Sample Syllabus

Anglo Linguist is committed to providing you with the information you need to understand the learning material included in our Schools Programme. The AngloLinguist programme is organised into topics. Each topic lasts for two weeks and includes a video featuring British culture and life in the UK; questions on the topic; two grammar exercises; two reading exercises; and a song listening exercise published as follows:

Mondays: Video/Topic Question/Song Listening Exercise
 Wednesdays: Grammar exercises
 Fridays: Reading exercises

Here is a sample syllabus for the 36 week academic year on the AngloLinguist Schools Programme. Should you have any questions or queries about the learning materials used on anglolingvist.com, please do not hesitate to contact our academic team: academics@anglolingvist.com.

Topic 1: Weeks 1 &amp; 2
	Video	Grammar	Reading	Listening
5th Grade	Students will learn about Buckingham Palace, the Queen's London home.	Students will review days of the week, months and numbers.	Students will learn about the Royal Family and the Monument of the Great Fire of London.	Students listen to London Calling by The Clash
6th Grade	Students will learn about Chinatown in London's Soho district.	Students will review the Present Simple, Present Continuous, Past Simple and Past Continuous.	Students will be introduced to Toad Hall from the Wind in the Willows and learn about the Olympic Games and Ticket Collective	Students discover the song London Calling by The Clash.
7th Grade	Students will learn about Chinatown in London's Soho district.	Students will review past tenses.	Students will learn about plans for Spider-Man, the musical and the Plague	Students discover the song Warwick Avenue by Duffy
8th Grade	Students will learn about Chinatown in London's Soho district.	Students will review various tenses.	Students will learn about the 2020 London traffic vision and London Fashion Week	Students discover the song Warwick Avenue by Duffy

9th Grade	Students will learn about the Houses of Parliament.	Students will review reported speech.	Students will learn about the expenses scandal in the British government and Virginia Woolfe's Mrs Dalloway.	Students discover the song Warwick Avenue by Duffy
Topic 2: Weeks 3 &amp; 4
	Video	Grammar	Reading	Listening
5th Grade	Students will learn about Baker Street and the famous Madame Tussauds wax figures.	Students will review prepositions, irregular adjectives, times and numbers.	Students will be introduced to Sherlock Holmes in The Hound of the Baskervilles and The Phantom of the Opera	Students will listen to Bleeding Love by Leona Lewis
6th Grade	Students will learn about Abbey Road and the Beatles	Students will review adjectives and the Simple Past	Students will read about the Beatles and Big Ben	Students will listen to The Promise by Girls Aloud
7th Grade	Students will learn about Baker Street and the famous Madame Tussauds wax figures.	Students will review future negatives and reflexive pronouns.	Students will be introduced to Sherlock Holmes in the Five Orange Pips and read about book sales in the UK.	Students will listen to the song Bleeding Love by Leona Lewis.
8th Grade	Students will learn about the Beatles.	Students will review the Future Passive, irregular verbs and conditionals.	Students will read extracts from Pride and Prejudice and about the £10m wedding dress	Students will listen to Beat Again by JLS
9th Grade	Students will learn about Baker Street and the famous Madame Tussauds wax figures.	Students will review the will-future and various tenses.	Students will be introduced to Sherlock Holmes in The Engineer's Thumb and Turner's watercolour for sale	Students will listen to Beat Again by JLS
Topic 3: Weeks 5 &amp; 6
	Video	Grammar	Reading	Listening
5th Grade	Students will learn about cycling in London.	Students will review imperatives and prepositions.	Students will read about the Boris bikes and organic food.	Students will listen to the song I Want To Ride my Bicycle by The Queen.
6th Grade	Students will learn about the famous Wembley football stadium.	Students will review the Past Continuous and apostrophes.	Students will read a brief history of Rugby and the London Olympics 2012.	Students will listen to the popular rugby chant Swing Low Sweet Chariot

7th Grade	Students will learn about Greener Travel in London	Students will review imperatives.	Students will read about organic food and Northumberland's Neolithic Goats	Students will listen to the Food, glorious food from the musical Oliver
8th Grade	Students will learn about the famous Wembley football stadium.	Students will review inversions.	Students will read about the revival of British gymnastics and an overhaul of football academies	Students will listen to We Are The Champions by The Queen
9th Grade	Students will learn about technology and social media.	Students will review prepositions.	Students will read about smartphones and a review of the iPhone 4S	Students will listen to We Are Family by Sister Sledge

Topic 4: Weeks 7 & 8

	Video	Grammar	Reading	Listening
5th Grade	Students will learn about Oxford Street.	Students will review the will-future and plurals	Students will read about fashion designers and the Phantom of the Opera	Students will listen to LDN by Lily Allen
6th Grade	Students will learn about British reality TV	Students will review the simple past.	Students will read about the popular programme Strictly come dancing and The Jungle Book by Rudyard Kipling	Students will listen to the song All You Need is Love by The Beatles
7th Grade	Students will learn about technology and social media.	Students will review the passive voice and tenses.	Students will read about technology addicts and The Little Mermaid.	Students will listen to the song We are Family by Sister Sledge
8th Grade	Students will learn about the Tower of London.	Students will review the will/ and going to-future and indirect speech	Students will read about the monarchy and Goldilocks and the three bears	Students will listen to If A Tree Falls by Bruce Cockburn
9th Grade	Students will learn about traditional Sunday lunch.	Students will review passives.	Students will read a restaurant review and parts of Little Red Riding Hood	Students will listen to Food, Glorious Food from the musical Oliver.

Topic 5: Weeks 9 & 10

	Video	Grammar	Reading	Listening
5th Grade	Students will learn about technology and social media.	Students will review the past continuous and the simple future	Students will read about Demi Moore and Ashton Kutcher and The Princess and the Pea	Students will listen to You've Got A Friend by James Taylor.

6th Grade	Students will read about greener travel	Students will review imperatives and question formation.	Students will read about organic food and The Story of little Tiny	Students will listen to If A Tree Falls by Bruce Cockburn
7th Grade	Students will learn about the famous Wembley football stadium	Students will review future passives and conditionals	Students will read about the revival of British gymnastics and Snow White	Students will listen to We Are The Champions by The Queen
8th Grade	Students will learn about Buckingham Palace	Students will review inversion and irregular verbs.	Students will read parts of Pride and Prejudice and Hansel and Gretel	Students will listen to All You Need is Love by the Beatles.
9th Grade	Students will learn about the congestion charge in Central London.	Students will review prepositions and the past progressive tense	Students will discover information about London's Great Stink and read parts of Sleeping Beauty	Students will listen to Heal the World by Michael Jackson

Topic 6: Weeks 11 & 12

	Video	Grammar	Reading	Listening
5th Grade	Students will learn about the famous writer Charles Dickens	Students will review irregular and modal verbs.	Students will read about Haggis and organic food.	Students will listen to Food, Glorious Food from the musical Oliver.
6th Grade	Students will read about famous singer Leona Lewis	Students will review prepositions and irregular adjectives	Students will read about Alexandra Burke	Students will listen to the popular rugby chant Swing Low Sweet Chariot
7th Grade	Students will learn about the Tower of London, London's historic prison.	Students will review the past perfect, passives and idioms.	Students will read extracts from Hard Times by Charles Dickens and Northumberland Neolithic Goats	Students will listen to Heal the World by Michael Jackson
8th Grade	Students will learn about Wimbledon, the home of British tennis.	Students will review plurals.	Students will read about the history of the tennis kit and the football academy overhaul	Students will listen to I Want to Ride My Bicycle by Queen
9th Grade	Students will learn about the famous Victoria and Albert Museum	Students will review passives and tenses.	Students will read about the swinging sixties and a review of the iPhone 4S	Students will listen to Fashion by Lady Gaga

Topic 7: Weeks 13 & 14

	Video	Grammar	Reading	Listening
5th Grade	Students will learn about British reality TV	Students will review simple past and tenses.	Students will read about the popular programme Strictly come dancing and The Elves save the day	Students will listen to Frosty the Snowman
6th Grade	Students will learn about Charles Dickens, one of Britain's most famous writers.	Students will review comparatives and superlatives.	Students will read an extract from David Copperfield by Charles Dickens and The Special Gift	Students will listen to Away in a Manger
7th Grade	Students will learn about British reality TV	Students will review passives and tenses.	Students will read about the legendary film director Alfred Hitchcock and The Fir Tree	Students will listen to All I Want for Christmas
8th Grade	Students will learn about the Victoria and Albert Museum	Students will review the future in the past and other tenses	Students will read about Heidi Klum and The Snow Queen	Students will listen to the song Merry Christmas Everyone
9th Grade	Students will learn about Greener Travel in London	Students will review infinitives and gerunds.	Students will read part of a speech by former prime minister Gordon Brown and A Christmas Carol.	Students will listen to Once in Royal David's City

Topic 8: Weeks 15 & 16

	Video	Grammar	Reading	Listening
5th Grade	Students will learn about the London West End.	Students will review the present simple and plurals.	Students will read the lyrics Elle from Legally Blonde and a synopsis of a Chorus Line	Students will listen to the song One from the musical A Chorus Line
6th Grade	Students will learn about traditional Sunday lunch.	Students will review the past continuous, pronouns and comparatives	Students will take a closer look at a Shepherd's Pie recipe and will read a biography of Aerosmith	Students will listen to the song Crying by Aerosmith
7th Grade	Students will learn about traditional Sunday lunch.	Students will review the passive voice and reflexive pronouns	Students will read about St. Patrick's Day and the history of the song Auld Lang Syne	Students will listen to Auld Lang Syne

8th Grade	Students will learn about Leona Lewis who become famous through a TV talent show	Students will review future tenses and time clauses	Students will be reading about Angelina Jolie's film Salt and a biography of Kate Perry	Students will listen to the song Firework by Kate Perry.
9th Grade	Students will learn about the Tower of London	Students will review past tenses, dynamic and state verbs	Students will read about Ken, a Buddhist living in London and a Supremes album review	Students will listen to Aint' No Mountain High Enough by The Supremes
Topic 9: Weeks 17 &amp; 18
	Video	Grammar	Reading	Listening
5th Grade	Students will learn about Abbey Road and The Beatles	Students will review adjectives	Students will read about the history of The Beatles	Students will listen to The Promise by Girls Aloud
6th Grade	Students will learn about The Tower of London	Students will review the past perfect and idioms	Students will read a passage from 'Hard Times' by Charles Dickens	Students will listen to You've Got A Friend by James Taylor
7th Grade	Students will learn about Buckingham Palace	Students will review Days, months and numbers	Students will read about The Royal Family's name	Students will listen to All You Need is love by The Beatles
8th Grade	Students will learn about greener travel in London	Students will review the present simple and imperatives	Students will read about organic food	Students will listen to Ain't No Mountain High Enough by The Supremes
9th Grade	Students will learn about Abbey Road and The Beatles (Adv)	Students will review the future passive	Students will read an extract from Pride and Prejudice by Jane Austen	Students will listen to Waka Waka by Shakira
Topic 10: Weeks 19 &amp; 20
	Video	Grammar	Reading	Listening
5th Grade	Students will read about Wembley stadium, the home of English football	Students will review the past continuous and the simple future	Students will read a brief history of Rugby and 60 years on the throne for Elizabeth II	Students will listen to the popular rugby chant Swing Low Sweet Chariot
6th Grade	Students will learn about The Tower of London	Students will review irregular verbs and future tenses	Students will read about Haggis, Scotland's national dish and A proposal in Malaysia	Students will listen to Amazing Grace

7th Grade	Students will learn about the different religions represented in London	Students will review future tenses and the simple past and past participle	Students will read about Notting Hill Carnival and Facebook weddings	Students will listen to Waka Waka by Shakira
8th Grade	Students will learn about the Houses of Parliament.	Students will review reported speech and past perfect	Students will read about the MP expense scandal and The fantastic Mr Fox	Students will listen to the song One Moment In Time by Whitney Houston
9th Grade	Students will learn about different religions in London	Students will review past perfect continuous and modals	Students will read about Ken, a Buddhist living in London and the Olympic Sponsorship row	Students will listen to the song Firework by Kate Perry.
Topic 11: Weeks 21 &amp; 22
	Video	Grammar	Reading	Listening
5th Grade	Students will be learning about the benefits of having a pen pal	Students will review adverbs of frequency and negative structure using do	Students will explore articles about social networking and communication	Students will listen to Stop in the Name of Love by The Supremes
6th Grade	Students will learn more about working in fashion	Students will review indirect speech and defining relative clauses	Students will explore articles about the latest fashion trends	Students will listen to the song Fashion by Lady Gaga
7th Grade	Students will learn more about the tradition of English afternoon tea.	Students will review non-defining relative clauses and irregular verbs.	Students will explore articles about contemporary food writing	Students will listen to the song I Love Coffee by Java Five
8th Grade	Students will hear a young English student talk about his favourite sports	Students will review make/let s.o. do something - structures and prepositions of time and place	Students will explore articles about current sports news	Students will listen to Reach by Giorgio Moroder, the Olympic theme song of the 1986 Olympics in Los Angeles.
9th Grade	Students will learn about London's cycling scheme	Students will review the infinitive of purpose and have something done	Students will read about Ken, a Buddhist living in London and the Olympic Sponsorship row	Students will listen to Big Yellow Taxi by Joni Mitchell

Topic 12: Weeks 23 & 24

	Video	Grammar	Reading	Listening
5th Grade	Students will listen to a young woman who is dreaming of a career as a dancer	Students will review definite v. indefinite articles and basic adjectives	Students will explore articles about current entertainment news	Students will listen to the song What a feeling from the movie Flashdance
6th Grade	Students will learn more about the tradition of English afternoon tea.	Students will review modal verbs of ability and the present perfect in contrast with the simple past	Students will explore articles about current fashion trends	Students will listen to the song I Love Coffee by Java Five
7th Grade	Students will hear Jacob speak about recycling	Students will review the use of zero article and commonly confused adverbials, e.g. hard/hardly	Students will explore articles about current environmental news	Students will listen to the song Mercy, Mercy Me by Marvin Gaye.
8th Grade	Students will learn about St. Paul's Cathedral in London	Students will review the present perfect continuous and indirect speech with backshift	Students will explore articles about current political affairs	Students will listen to the famous anti-war song Eve of Destruction by Barry McGuire
9th Grade	Students will learn about a very special war memorial in London.	Students will review the past perfect in contrast with the past simple and tricky countable and uncountable nouns.	Students will explore articles about the importance of war memorials in Britain	Students will listen to the original of the popular Glee song Don't Stop Believin' by Journey.

Topic 13: Weeks 25 & 26

	Video	Grammar	Reading	Listening
5th Grade	Students will learn about the London Underground and how to use it	Students will review modals of possibility and numbers and cardinal up to 100	Students will explore articles about new developments in public transportation.	Students will listen to Itchycoo Park by The Small Faces
6th Grade	Students will learn more about the Victoria and Albert Museum in London	Students will review question tags and irregular plurals	Students will explore articles about current exhibitions in London museums	Students will listen to Lily Allen's song LDN
7th Grade	Students will learn about fish and chips, England's most popular fast food.	Students will review indefinite pronouns and the future in the past.	Students will explore articles about contemporary food writing	Students will listen to the song parody Eat It by Weird Al Jankovic

8th Grade	Students will learn more about how social networking is used by young people in England	Students will review the third conditional and time clauses	Students will explore articles about the latest trends in social media.	Students will listen to Help by The Beatles
9th Grade	Students will see different people speak about how they recycle.	Students will review inversion for emphasis and neither/nor and either/or structures	Students will explore articles about sustainable development	Students will listen to One moment in time by Whitney Houston

Topic 14: Weeks 27 & 28

	Video	Grammar	Reading	Listening
5th Grade	Students will learn about the popular English dessert Eton Mess	Students will review 'wh'-questions and the present continuous in contract with the present simple	Students will explore articles about famous English sweets.	Students will listen to the popular song Lollipop by The Chordettes.
6th Grade	Students will learn about Covent Garden and its famous street artists	Students will review the present perfect with since and for and comparatives and superlatives	Students will explore articles about busking on the London Underground.	Students will listen to Home Town Glory by the successful British singer Adele
7th Grade	Students will listen to Ben talking about his favourite sports.	Students will review subject/object pronouns and indirect speech without backshift.	Students will explore articles about current sports news	Students will to Celebration by Kool and the Gang
8th Grade	Students will listen to a young couple talking about their wedding preparations	Students will review gerunds and infinitives and extend their knowledge of irregular verbs	Students will explore articles about celebrity weddings	Students will listen to We've Only Just Begun by The Carpenters.
9th Grade	Students will learn more about British sports.	Students will review the first and second conditional and more advanced determiners	Students will explore articles about famous sportspeople in history.	Students will listen to the popular rock tune Simply The Best by Tina Turner

Topic 15: Weeks 29 & 30

	Video	Grammar	Reading	Listening
5th Grade	Students will learn more about fish and chips, the famous English fast food.	Students will review indefinite pronouns and be going to	Students will explore articles about latest views on health food.	Students will listen to the song parody Eat It by Weird Al Jankovic

6th Grade	Students will learn about Buckingham Palace, the Queen's London home.	Students will review simple conjunctions and adverbs of manner	Students will explore articles about the Queen's jubilee year.	Students will listen to the song Tower of London by ABC.
7th Grade	Students will learn about London busses and their role in public transport	Students will review irregular verbs and the first and second conditional	Students will explore articles about different public transportation systems in Europe	Students will listen to Chasing Cars by Snow Patrol
8th Grade	Students will learn more about Westminster Abbey, the church where the coronation of the English Kings and Queens take place.	Students will review reflexive pronouns and the future perfect	Students will explore articles about Kings and Queens of England	Students will listen to English coronation anthem Zadok the Priest by Georg Friedrich Handel
9th Grade	Students will learn more about Trafalgar Square and Nelson's column	Students will review more complex conjunctions and -self pronouns	Students will explore articles about the height of the British Empire.	Students will listen to Streets of London by Ralph McTell

Topic 16: Weeks 31 & 32

	Video	Grammar	Reading	Listening
5th Grade	Students will listen to a young talking about work in fashion	Students will review indirect speech and the third person singular	Students will explore articles about current fashion trends	Students will listen to the song Fashion by Lady Gaga
6th Grade	Students will learn more about the benefits of having a pen pal	Students will review adverbs of frequency and homophones	Students will explore articles about the latest developments in social media	Students will listen to I'm Gonna Sit Right Down and Write Myself A Letter by Frank Sinatra
7th Grade	Students will learn more about recycling in England.	Students will review the infinitive of purpose and the passive voice	Students will explore articles about sustainable development in the UK	Students will listen to Big Yellow Taxi by Joni Mitchell
8th Grade	Students will learn about the tradition of English afternoon tea	Students will review defining and non-defining relative clauses and the future in the past	Students will explore articles about food traditions around the world	Students will listen to I Love Coffee by Java Five
9th Grade	Students will learn more about British sport by listening to the young student Ben	Students will review make/let s.o. do something structures and emphatic language	Students will explore articles about innovative new sports.	Students will listen to Reach by Giorgio Moroder

Topic 17: Weeks 33 & 34

	Video	Grammar	Reading	Listening
5th Grade	Students will learn more about Covent Garden and its famous street entertainment	Students will review the use of the present perfect with since and for and prepositions of place	Students will explore articles about street art around the world.	Students will listen to Home Town Glory by successful singer Adele
6th Grade	Students will learn about a young woman's dreams of a career in dancing	Students will review the definite and indefinite articles and substitutes for modals	Students will explore articles about the popularity of dance shows on British TV	Students will listen to the song What A Feeling from the famous musical film Flashdance
7th Grade	Students will learn more about St. Paul's Cathedral in London	Students will review the present perfect continuous and modals of obligation	Students will explore articles about the history of the Anglican church	Students will listen to the original of the Glee song Don't Stop Believin' by Journey
8th Grade	Students will learn about a very different kind of war memorial in London	Students will review the past simple in contrast with the past perfect and dynamic and state verbs	Students will explore articles about social media and their influence on democratic movements today.	Students will listen to the popular anti-war song Eve of Destruction by Barry McGuire.
9th Grade	Students will learn more about recycling in the UK	Students will review the use of the zero article and noun phrases	Students will explore articles about different environmental groups around the world.	Students will listen to the song Mercy, Mercy Me by Marvin Gaye

Topic 18: Weeks 35 & 36

	Video	Grammar	Reading	Listening
5th Grade	Students will learn more about popular sports in Britain	Students will review subject/object pronouns and a variety of grammar aspects of this AL course	Students will explore articles about the latest London Olympic news.	Students will listen to Celebration by Kool and the Gang
6th Grade	Students will learn more about the London Underground and how to use it	Students will review modals of possibility and a variety of grammar aspects of this AL course	Students will explore articles about life in London during the Olympics.	Students will listen to Itchycoo Park by The Small Faces
7th Grade	Students will learn about the Victoria and Albert Museum	Students will review question tags and a variety of grammar aspects of this AL course	Students will explore articles about the London cultural Olympiad.	Students will listen to Lily Allen's song LDN

8th Grade	Students will learn more about electric cars in London	Students will review inversion for emphasis and a variety of grammar aspects of this AL course	Students will explore articles about the Emirates Air Line urban cable car.	Students will listen to Mercedes Benz by Janis Joplin
9th Grade	Students will learn more about why social networking is so popular in the UK	Students will review the third conditional and a variety of grammar aspects of this AL course	Students will explore articles about the media coverage of the London Olympics.	Students will listen to Help by The Beatles